

Hippie to marry

The tradition of having a wedding ceremony mysteriously named Hippie to marry goes back to the romantic atmosphere of the 80s. When comfortable T-shirts and frayed jeans were in fashion with songs under guitar, with ideology of love, freedom and solitude. And of course the ideal venue for such a wedding is the village of Matala located on the coast of the Libyan Sea where the annual music hippy festival takes place.

The modern symbolic wedding in Hippie to marry style is full of joy and laughter. Its most characteristic features are the informal atmosphere and songs of Joni Mitchell. This wedding style is ideal for those who were and still remain "flower children" ready to drink champagne, dance and have fun with their family and friends all night long.
