

My big Greek wedding on Crete

If you associate the word "wedding" with joy and a lively atmosphere, flavored with local Greek flavor, if you enjoy being in the spotlight and would like to share your joy with as many people as possible, then such a symbolic ceremony on Crete in Greece will suit you perfectly.

Get rid of all the troubles concerning the entertainment programme at dinner! The musicians are waiting for you for your first dance on the stage of the tavern and professional dancers are ready to share the secrets of syrtaki dance under its enchanting music. Use this opportunity to surprise your friends by a real Greek feast and have fun! Where else have you seen the pictures of a bride in her wedding dress, surrounded by Greek brave men in their national costumes? These photos will be in your wedding album!

By choosing this option for your wedding, you will avoid all the disturbing thoughts like: "Will there be enough fun at my wedding? Will it be interesting to my guests? Have I managed to preserve the Greek flavor during the wedding?" Besides all the obvious advantages, such a ceremony will cost you much less and will be a perfect way to celebrate your wedding with music, dancing and a festive meal. And even if you come to Greece together with your loved ones and your relatives and friends could not join the celebration, you will have plenty of people who will eagerly share your joy and happiness!
