

Kivotos Hotel Mykonos ★★★★★

More than just a Boutique Hotel in Mykonos Greece, the Kivotos Luxury Boutique Hotel, was not destined originally to become one of the best hotels in Mykonos, for it was meant to be a family villa. What is now considered amongst the foremost Boutique Hotels in Mykonos Greece, offering aesthetically outstanding Mykonos accommodation and Mykonos suites, was originally inspired by an antique. Mykonos suites are decorated with objects d'art. Throughout the environs of this luxurious accommodation in Mykonos, modern art collections abound. The hotel highlights 17th, 18th and 21st century pieces, each a rare jewel, carefully chosen, one at a time, each and every year.

The magnificent 150 square meter private waterfront villa is ingeniously blended into the natural surroundings, and boasts awe-inspiring architecture and spellbinding interior design. There is nothing short of magical about this villa, which has its own private pool and private beach area right in front, complete with sunbeds and umbrellas. The building is split in three levels. The ground floor has a lounge, a sauna and a bathroom with shower. The private heated pool starts from the outside and ends up inside the villa. The first floor features the master bedroom, a balcony, and a bathroom with a Jacuzzi and a window that overlooks the bay of Ornos. The second floor is ideal for romantic candlelight dinners and small intimate gatherings, since it comes with a bar and a long antique table. This floor also has a fully equipped kitchen –used by the villa’s staff- and a bathroom with shower. The villa has an elevator –no interior staircase-, ultra-modern furniture and lighting, imaginative glass floors, and soothing colours in the shades of blue and lime green. It has 3 different entrances –one for each floor- and private access to the hotel’s SPA. Not suitable for children under the age of 12.
