

Kaissa Beach- NR ★★★

The small three-star complex Kaissa Beach Hotel is located in the resort town of Kato Gouves, in a beautiful location, with a magnificent view of the sea and distant mountains, 18 km from the city of Heraklion. A cozy hotel in a traditional Greek style with colorful architecture, completely renovated in 2007 and consists of 6 different buildings and 38 rooms, which were also renovated in 2018. All rooms have a simple, modern design and are well equipped with all the necessary amenities. Some of the double rooms are located in the annex building, 100 m. from the main road with shops, restaurants, bars and 120 m. from the sandy beach of Gouves. The distance from the central building of the hotel is about 550 m. For the convenience of guests, a minibus runs from the additional buildings. The hotel offers two restaurants serving a variety of local and international cuisine and a poolside bar with a TV. The hotel has an outdoor freshwater pool and a sun terrace with loungers and parasols. Free Wi-Fi internet access is available in public areas and the pool bar. For children there is a playground, baby cots upon requests in the rooms and high chairs in restaurants. For an additional fee, guests can have fun playing billiards or electronic games. The hotel is recommended for economical family and youth recreation.
