

Domes Zeen,a Luxury Collection Resort, Crete ★★★★★

The new five-star luxury hotel Domes Zeen Chania, formerly Casa Cook Chania, after its dynamic opening in 2019 and outstanding results at TripAdvisor, is now entering 2020 with further improvements. Owned and managed by the famous Domes Resorts, the luxurious yet discreet boutique resort Domes Zeen is surrounded by tropical greenery, enchanting mountains and the Mediterranean Sea. Domes Zeen is located on the picturesque west coast of Crete, close to the vibrant city center of Chania, making it an ideal base for travelers. Domes Zeen also has an advantageous location near magnificent beaches - some of the best in Crete and even in Europe - including the famous Balos beach, Elafonisi, famous for its pink sands and turquoise waters, Iguana Beach, Nea Chora, famous for its traditional eateries and Golden Beach. The unique architecture of the resort is equipped with wood and natural stone with earthy shades, which creates a soothing atmosphere. The rooms feature handmade furniture, luxurious sofas and sliding glass doors that open onto attractive private terraces. Domes Zeen Hotel is suitable for families, as every little thing has been designed and thought out for families - various accommodation options for families, with private or shared pools and spacious gardens, exciting activities for children and adults, garden terraces and special playgrounds, a kids club, an attractive and secure private beach area and much more. Jungle Spa is an open-air temple of health, beauty and balance that offers a variety of face and body treatments using natural healing ingredients and inspired by timeless traditions. Energy massage, tonic massage, stone therapy and even procedures for pregnant women are carried out in the fresh air by experienced therapists.
