

Kalimera Kriti Hotel & Village ★★★★★

The unique five-star resort Kalimera Kriti Hotel and Village Resort is located on the north coast of Crete, harmoniously spread over 240,000 m² of magnificent Mediterranean gardens. At 1 km from the hotel is the former fishing village of Sissi, left untouched by tourism, with a picturesque small port and shops, taverns and traditional Greek coffee shops. The hotel consists of a main building in the style of the Minoan palace and three bungalow zones, built in the style of traditional Cretan villages. The rooms, bungalows and suites of the hotel are distinguished by elegance, traditional Cretan style and a high level of comfort. Most rooms offer a wonderful view of the Cretan Sea. The resort has many bars and restaurants offering a selection of international and traditional Greek and Cretan dishes. Everything is carefully prepared by the best chefs from fresh local produce. The landscape of the garden smoothly descends to two beautiful private sandy beaches, equipped with comfortable sun beds and umbrellas, which, for hotel guests, are provided free of charge. The hotel has a wide range of sports facilities, a football field, six new tennis courts, two outdoor swimming pools with fresh water, one of which is Olympic size and one indoor, heated pool. Daytime and evening activities, entertainment programs with stage shows, special evenings with live music or a disco are held daily. For children, the hotel has an outdoor playground, a soft playroom, a separate children's pool, a kids club and a varied program of interesting outdoor and indoor activities. The elegant spa offers a wide range of treatments, including facial and body massages. With a large selection of restaurants, open spaces and halls, the hotel offers an exciting range of facilities for meetings, events and banquets, cocktail evenings or gala dinners. Everything you need to relax, as well as souvenirs and local products can be purchased at the mall in the main building with a boutique, jewelry store, a mini market and a souvenir shop with Greek and Cretan products.
